Rotary Grace

For good food, good fellowship, and the privilege to serve,
through Rotary we give thanks.

Wills and Estate Planning

Our guest speaker last week was Nena Hicks from the Office of the Public Trustee.

She spoke of the need for wills and estate planning and how we are badly equipped to know how the world will be when we die. We are living longer and there are higher rates of dementia. There is a class of people who can contest a will if they feel they have not been fairly dealt with so it is good to be well prepared.

President's Diary

Why not share this wonderful weather, good company and interesting discussions by inviting a friend to our Rotary meetings?

This Thursday we host Maryam Blizzard from the Indigenous Innovation Programme to talk about her work. This will give us a further insight into indigenous issues and ways we might be able to make a difference.

The following week our guest will be our old friend Barry Howe preparing us for a working bee at Greenhills, Cotter on 15th November. Is that date in your diary? We can have a great day getting down and dirty helping restore the facilities for youth activities.

ADVANCE NOTICE:

STOMP - next Saturday

District Conference - Saturday 1 November. Can you come along? We are registering this week.

Twilight Dinner on the lake - cruise from 6.00pm 26 November in place of a meeting - Can you come and bring a friend?

Christmas Party - Tony McG lovely new home - Friday 12th December

AGM and Elections - nominations sought - 18 December

Ross Brown has invited Christopher Gaoue-Long, Rupula-Mai Swan and Chantal Penn along with their Teacher Susan Alexander to attend our meeting on 30/10/08 to give a brief talk on their RYPEN experience on 21/9/08.

See you on Thursday

Police Checks

This is your last opportunity to have your police check done and paid for by the Club. If you wish to work with young people on any Rotary project in the future and haven't had a police check, you will have to pay for it yourself. A reminder that you need to include some photo ID - either a passport front page, or your drivers license.

Donations For Silent Auction For The STOMP

Last chance! A reminder that Liz will be collecting donations from members this Thursday to be incorporated into a couple of baskets of goodies for the auction on Saturday evening.
