President's Diary

Once in a while we shine, and last week was one of those occasions. We planned another new member's lunch and especially introduce women to our Club. We had a packed house and my thanks go to Liz for her big effort. Over 40 members and guests attended the meeting to hear from His Excellency Mr Jaroszynski from the Republic of Poland. He delivered an entertaining address on the ambiguities and contradictions of the new Europe. Religious, military, age and cultural differences all cause tensions in the new Europe however he is an optimist, and a capable diplomat willing to tackle the new challenges. He seemed to enjoy our club and expressed an interest in helping us with the twinning agreement with Krakow Club.

I hope we have a number of interested new members who might like to hear more about Canberra Burley Griffin. Please make an effort to continuously involve new members, introduce them and support them. It must be a new experience for many of them.

This week we relax with a Vocational experience and lunch at the ZOO. Please get there promptly at 12noon and lunch will be served. Then an introduction to the "behind the scenes" tour with George Wilson.

See you there. Bill
