President's Diary

What a wonderful effort last Saturday! Three teams of hardy Rotarians and friends tackled about 9 homes of disadvantaged people around Canberra and made a substantial improvement to their gardens. In the 3 houses I worked on with Joyce, Vincent and Chris (and my son Thomas), we ran a competition to see if the pile of rubbish at each house could be larger than the last one. We heard many heart wrenching stories of people who were just too ill to do anything and we all felt our work was appreciated and well worth the time and effort.

We then journeyed to Mike and Emily Purvis' lovely home in Wanniasa for a hearty barbeque and unlimited drinks. A wonderful way to finish a very rewarding day's work. Thank you to all participants, and especially Mike Purvis and Handyhelp for making it all happen.

This Thursday will be a Club Assembly to hear where we are up to with our other projects, and what is planned for the coming months. Please come along and provide your comments.

Then 12th March - "How to Build a Vineyard and Winery" by Graeme Lunney from Four Wind Winery, Murrumbateman.

See you then.
