Presidents Diary

I am working hard to establish a funding base for our West Timor project, and this week received an invitation to make a presentation to the Canberra Club. The third matching grant for this worthwhile project is about to conclude, and I am keen to enlist Rotary's resources to keep it moving ahead.

For my last regular meeting last Thursday, it was a real pleasure to induct 2 excellent candidates as Rotarians - Tom Davison and Clayton Perry. I am delighted that the whole club has been so active in encouraging new members, and in the case of Clayton, we are especially pleased that he has come back to the fold after a number of years. Tom has already experienced Handyhelp, and the satisfaction of our work at Angas Downs. Both will be excellent ambassadors for Rotary.

We enjoyed a presentation by Piers Booth on the Rotary Oceanic Medical Assistance to Children Programme (ROMAC), a fantastic operation which is generously supported by a number of specialists in Canberra.

This week we can sit back and relax over dinner and enjoy a handover of tasks to John Little and the new Board. We can reflect on a year's work, a job well done, and the fellowship of so many new friends in Rotary. I look forward to catching up on Wednesday, 7 for 7.30 at the Yacht Club. Bill.

Also from last week is Graeme Howieson presenting a cheque for $1,850 to Chris and Jana from CANTEEN. Money raised was from the last STOMP. Since STOMP began after the Tsunami disaster, it has raised $50,000 which has been donated to many a charity.
