President's Diary

As the year wanders on to our June changeover, I am constantly amazed at the level of energy and enterprise in our Club. Graeme's announcement that we made about $5,000 at the STOMP last Saturday was truly amazing, as was the enthusiasm exhibited by so many Club members by turning up and working until 1.00am after the STOMP. It was a great result, and we should all be proud that our efforts will be sent directly to the Victorian Bushfire Appeal for our fellow citizens affected by the Black Saturday fires.

Bob Garvan provided a timely interlude by reminding us of the significance of Easter.

Last week we also learned about the CIT Aboriginal studies support scheme run by Caroline Hughes. She spoke enthusiastically about her project and we were left in no doubt that her work is directly benefitting about 150 indigenous students who will graduate with a useful trade skill. Chris Gray will work closely with Caroline to assess the best way we can work with her – be it mentor support or financial support for students who cant afford equipment such as a set of scissors for a hairdressing student.

THIS THURSDAY:

One of our own and one of the best – Bob Garvan will talk about his varied life and experiences. His assistance as our Salvation Army representative has been very positive over the past year so we look forward to learning more about his life.
